

UTC Activity Report

7 November 2007

The main focus of Unicode work has been the ongoing development of Unicode 5.1.

We have also been working to prepare our database of potential ideographs for encoding as a Technical Report. This will make the full database, including those characters we have not and will not submit to the IRG, available to the public in a form which can be referenced in other documents.