Web site: <http://www.ccm.gov.mo>

(Please see Appendix A for more details, participants are suggested to print this page out as reference when coming to Macao.)

4. Meeting Room

- VIP Room: at 1st Floor, for open ceremony
- Conference Room: at 1st Floor, can be divided into three separate meeting rooms, two-third is used for round table meeting and the other one-third is used for ac-hoc meeting (please see Appendix B)

5. Passport and Visa

All participants are advised to check regulations regarding passport and visa, especially the length of notice for obtaining a visa, with their travel agency. If required, you can also contact the embassies/consulates of China at your location (please see Appendix C for embassies/consulates information in Korea and Vietnam).

It is visa-free entry to Hong Kong and Macao for passport holders of Japan, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan and U.S.A. except North Korea and Vietnam. If you need any documents for acquisition of visa, please contact the host contact (cchau.safp@informac.gov.mo) for assistance.

6. Transportation

There are two choices of transportation to Macao from your country or region:

1. Direct airline: from China or Taiwan;
2. Indirect airline: all participants except from China and Taiwan should arrive at Hong Kong Airport first, and then transport to Macao by Jetfoil or helicopter services (detail transportation is shown in Appendix D).

7. Hotel Information

In order to let the participants reach the meeting location in an acceptable period, we recommend a list of hotels located near by the Macao Cultural Centre (please see Appendix A and E). Room prices and facilities are shown at their web sites, and on-line reservation service is also provided. Please choose as you like, and make your room reservation as early as possible.
